waiters." He takes the bun as a "first-class liar." Second class liars here have to furnish bail bonds. He gets $6000 a year to do the first-class act—and attend to his own private business.

We have been told that cholera germs will not live in anything after it is cooked. Why then did the Board of Health order the destruction of taro? Do they really believe that natives (or anybody else) will or can eat taro raw? If not, why is this waste of good food? If the water was infected, surely, being running water, it has long ago reached the sea.

Our military forces and our police are worrying over filibusters and another revolution. Neither they nor the government would need to worry, if the latter had adopted our plan of a general amnesty and the allaying of bitter feelings that such a step would have caused. Better late than never. Let the remainder of our political prisoners go. Their leaders have been out since the trials.

Food is an important factor in health. If supplies are not furnished pretty soon to the outer districts and the other islands, and their products allowed to come to us, famine may take in its train what the cholera has left. Let the Board of Health resign, or else exert its lawful authority and cause traffic to go on under well considered regulations.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:

The following is from Professor H-yeroff on the subject of prohibition:

"What results must follow, and have followed, prohibitory legislation. In Maine we find insanity, pauperism, and crime on the increase at an abnormally large rate; in Kansas there were more prisoners in its penitentiary and county jails in proportion to population in 1890 than in 1880. In Iowa, where wine could not be had for communion service, opium dens flourished. Students of ethnology know into what insane methods of intoxication Mahomedans have been driven by the Koran's prohibition of wine, and in Ireland the people have taken to drinking ether because of Father Mathews' great success as a temperance reformer."

To-day, liquor is sold openly throughout the length and breadth of Iowa without let or hindrance. Vermont is in the same quagmire. Even Governor Woodbury of Vermont, is openly accused of being a sly seller of rum in the above State. And still the cranks shout for prohibition. That healthful drink Root Beer, is now condemned as an alcoholic beverage. Prohibition and hypocrisy are synonymous.

TRUTH.

Sans Souci.

The most lovely spot on Oahu is Sans Souci. This favorite seaside resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the tramcars. The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.

There is a constant rush for Hats at L. B. Kerr's store on Queen street. Men, women and children are taking their pick of the elegant assortment on hand. Feathers for ladies hats in abundance and in all shades and varieties.
